

The Army is proud to again join the nation in celebrating Earth Day this April 22nd. Soldiers and installations around the globe will be recognizing the importance of sustaining the environment.

Earth Day is an opportunity to rededicate ourselves to the stewardship of the environment. Working together we can Sustain the Environment for a Secure Future.